

University of Findlay College of Pharmacy Community Learning Series

Location for All Classes

Room 2225
Davis Building
College of Pharmacy
The University of Findlay

All Classes are from 6:00-8:00pm

All classes are free and open to the public.

Sponsored By:

The University of Findlay
College of Pharmacy

Hancock County Board of Alcohol,
Drug Addiction & Mental Health Services

Hancock County Community
Partnership

Hancock County Opiate Task Force

Please join us this fall as our community embarks on a journey to increase its understanding of addiction.

Combatting Chemical Dependency: A Community Effort

This series will create an atmosphere of broad community ownership of addiction issues with a specific focus on how everyone can become part of the solution.

Community-wide impact will be achieved by elevating the awareness of all participants and engaging community members in a discussion on what can be done to effectively diminish the rampant epidemic of opioid abuse and addiction and help lead affected individuals to Recovery.

Participants may attend as many classes as desired:

August 19	Overview of Chemical Dependency	Michael Milks
August 26	Law Enforcement	Sheriff Michael Heldman Lieutenant Ryan Kidwell
September 2	Criminal Justice	Judge Reginald Routson
September 9	Marijuana Legalization Is the Grass Really Greener on the Other Side?	Deborah Berlekamp Lauren Berlekamp
September 16	Recovery Services	Wayne Ford Ellyn Schmiesing
September 23	The Recovery Experience	Focus On Friends Recovery Center
September 30	Adult Substance Use Disorders and Treatment Services	Century Health
October 7	Generation Rx and The University of Findlay Prevention Services	Ginny Williams
October 14	The Education Perspective	Findlay City Schools
October 21	Youth Substance Use Prevention, Disorders, and Treatment Services	Family Resource Center
October 28	Legislative Efforts	Representative Robert Sprague
November 4	Ohio's New Pharmacophore Law: The Bath Salts and Spices	Jon Sprague
November 11	Meth Lab Hazards and Clean-Up	Andrew Webb
November 18	Opiate Odyssey and Recovery: One Pharmacy Professional's Story	Chris Hart

For questions regarding this series,, please call 419-424-1985.